TUSCOLA

The old year is making her last run toward oblivion and we shall soon cease to write 1922 unless by miracle. Success and failure are written in flaming letters across the horizon that "who wins" make good.

Farmers never were busier since the killing time is here and the air is fragrant with trying work.

Bill, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Easler, is reported very sick. He had a severe cold and fever in the spring and early summer, but had a complete recovery.

The many friends of Mrs. Thompson are pleased to know that he has become a member of the Tuscola Farmers' Association.

We are thinking that he has only one more year to live, but he has been so long a member of the association.

Some of our young people are having a hard time of it, but they are all doing their best.

J. L. Neal of Tuscola, Ill., has just returned from a trip to the West.
